Just In: Speaker of the House Boehner's Letter To President Obama Seeking Clarity On Libyan Political And Military Policy.

Author : michaelbloomer

House Speaker John Boehner, R-Ohio, just sent a letter to President Obama asking him to explain the reasons behind the military mission in Libya. While, in some cases, the questions are certainly fair and reasoned, some appear to be questions that the GOP failed to ask of other U.S. military actions as recent as the Bush II administration. Yet, it is critical that a clearer statement of purpose is needed by the administration, and I'm looking forward to the administration's answers, if any. Bad stuff, it is said, often comes in threes, and we do not need, nor does the world need, a third American war. History may judge we did not need the earlier two as well. . .

Here's the Speaker's letter. See what you think. More from here on this later.
