John McCain, Yer OUT!

Even the conservatives panned Pappy McCracky's latest at bat . . . So, who's he got on the bench, now? Palin's been moved to utility infielder. The rest of the team - and most of those fans still in the stands - have tossed their rally caps for paper bags over their heads. It's moving into the ninth inning and there is no "next year."

On another note, for my wife, a long suffering Red Sox fan, as the lad above says, "GO Red SOX!!" I seem to remember that they were down 3-1 in another series not too long ago, and to a much better team (my faded Yankees). And tonight they've got their 18-3 pitcher Matsuzaka throwing! Don't break out the champagne yet, Rays . . . or at all.
