UPDATE to yesterday's "Bush to Country", 11-24-2008: Mike Licht at NotionsCapital wrote an informative and lively take on "burrowing," and closes with this:

"NotionsCapital has this tip for Bushie burrow-watchers: Look for The OPM Delegation Ploy, in which ”Schedule C” (politically-appointed) employees apply for positions and OPM delegates examining authority back to the appointee-led originating agency. Expect that agency’s Inspector General to blow the whistle? Not if the IG is a crony, too."
