Ryan Budget As Silent Genocide

Author : michaelbloomer

Meanwhile, 14 million is a minimum estimate of the number of Americans who would lose health insurance under Mr. Ryan's proposed cuts in Medicaid; estimates by the Urban Institute actually put the number at between 14 million and 27 million.

So the proposal is exactly as President Obama described it: a proposal to deny health care (and many other essentials) to millions of Americans, while lavishing tax cuts on corporations and the wealthy — all while failing to reduce the budget deficit, unless you believe in Mr. Ryan's secret revenue sauce. So why are centrists rising to Mr. Ryan's defense?
