Give it a try, make friends, meet potential class action suit buddies, start a club . . . TWSA's two-day pilot test in five cities (New York, Palm Beach, San Francisco, Edinburgh (Scotland), and London) caused more than 12,000 honks averaging 13 seconds each, honked by an estimated 3,000 vehicles, including cars, buses, trucks, school buses, garbage trucks, IRS agency vehicles, strollers, wheelchairs, bicycles, tricycles, taxis, and a Harley with two nuns. We're now going worldwide. See how many honks you get!
